Melrose Industries PLC (“Melrose”)

Statement re. Mergermarket article

Melrose notes the article published by Mergermarket dated 22nd March 2018 relating to its offer for GKN and attributing statements to a source close to and a person briefed on the matter.

The article contains a statement that Melrose is confident it will meet the 50.1% minimum threshold for shareholder acceptances. Melrose confirms that no spokesperson authorised by Melrose made such comments, which should be disregarded.

The article also contains a number of inaccuracies relating to a possible extension of the deadline for acceptances (29th March 2018) and the date by which all regulatory clearances have to be obtained. As stated in Melrose’s announcement this morning the conditions relating to CFIUS and DSS clearances will be waived by no later than 17th April 2018 to the extent that clearances have not been received by then.
