THIS ANNOUNCEMENT CONTAINS INSIDE INFORMATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

24 April 2018

Melrose Industries PLC (“Melrose”)

As announced in Parliament today by the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, Melrose confirms that it has entered into deeds of undertaking in respect of the GKN businesses, including in relation to national security.

As a British company, Melrose works in the national interest and remains wholly committed to protecting the UK’s national security.

A copy of each of the respective Deeds of Covenant and Undertaking will be published on Melrose’s corporate website: www.melroseplc.net

Christopher Miller, Chairman of Melrose, said today:

“We are pleased to sign these legally binding commitments. We have been in discussions for many weeks with Government as to how best to cement our long standing and clear undertakings and are grateful for their guidance. We look forward to continuing to work with the Government as we return GKN to be a manufacturing and engineering powerhouse.”
